

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

IV 2006

IEEE Intelligent Vehicles Symposium

Institute of Industrial Science, University of Tokyo, Tokyo, Japan
June 13-15, 2006

The IEEE Intelligent Transportation System Society (ITSS) is sponsoring a professional-level conference on basic research and present and future applications for Intelligent Vehicles and Intelligent Infrastructures. Papers dealing with vehicle-centered intelligent systems will be presented. This symposium is characterized by a single session format so that all the attendees remain in a single room for multilateral communications in an informal atmosphere. As another tradition, the meetings have enthusiastic participation from industry, as well as research centers and universities.
